08 C 2142 Court notified.

Greetings, I have received Judge Blanche M. Mannings order for me to comply and correctly file a leave to file Informa Pauperis according to 1915(a)(2) or pay the the full filing fee of $350.00. The order was made on May 7th 2008 and due within 30 days. I am informing the Clerk and the Judge of my case Matheny v. O'leary case # 08-CV-2142 that I received this order on June 5th 2008 and am taking the necessary steps to complete this Order. Although I have been transferred to the Illinois Department of Correction in which I did not notify this Court and the U.S Clerk before this order was made of my transfer and Change of Address. So it is not my guilt that I did not receive this order sooner. Seeing that I did receive a stamped copy of my amended Complaint from the U.S Clerks office at Stateville Correctional Center on May 12th, 2008. Therefore I should be granted an extension of time concerning the leave to file Informa Pauperis. Furthermore

I have not been incarcerated in any facility for six months. I have been incarcerated since February 28, 2008 in which I can only verify from 2-28-08 till now on my trust fund account and balances received. Before 2-28-08 I was homeless living in Joliet with no job, funds or other financial assistance other than $162.00 ^{amount} on the Illinois Ink card from the Joliet local DHS office. My Social Security number is 323-72-4500. If the Court needs verification the judge can only take into consideration the amount of information available. Please pass this letter to Judge Blanche M. Manning along with all the information provided in this enclosed envelope.
